

Section A: Music for Special Occasions.

1. Here are the first four phrases of Tavener's Song for Athene:

Al - le - lu - i - a A - le - lu - i - a

B: May flights of angels sing thee to rest.

C: Alleluia, Alleluia.

Re - mem - ber__ me O Lord.

Listen to this music four times as you answer the following questions.

(a) Circle which term best describes this music? (1 mark)

canon solo ballad aria a capella fugue

(b) How does Tavener create a sense of stillness and serenity in this extract?

.....

(5 marks)

(c) In what key is phrase A?.....(1 mark)

(d) Circle which term best describes the rhythm of phrase A? (1 mark)

duple triple quadruple no regular meter

(e) How does phrase B relate to phrase A? (2 marks)

.....

(f) How does phrase C differ from phrase A? (2 marks)

.....

(g) In phrase D write the three missing pitches for the words 'me O Lord' (where marked above the staff) (3 marks)